Under federal law, including Rule 5(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and all applicable decisions interpreting Brady, the government has a continuing obligation to produce all information or evidence known to the government that is relevant to the guilt or punishment of a defendant, including, but not limited to, exculpatory evidence.

Accordingly, the Court Orders the government to produce to the defendant in a timely manner all information or evidence known to the government that is either (1) relevant to the defendant’s guilt or punishment or (2) favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt or punishment.

This Order is entered under Rule 5(f) and does not relieve any party in this matter of any other discovery obligation.
